CALIFORNIA STATE FAIR

Greatest Attractions Offered to Those Who Attend.

With the California State Fair at Sacramento little more than a month away, the directors of the State Agricultural Society are sending out a statement to the effect that their earlier forecasts, which predicted a fair bigger and better than any previous year, will be borne out to the letter. This will be the sixth annual fair and this fact in itself insures extra effort on the part of the management, and the exhibitors who contribute toward the success of the fair, to make it an exposition that will long be remembered in the history of State Fairs.

Although the premium lists were a little late this year in being distributed, the entries are being made in increased numbers. The largest stock and poultry raisers on the Pacific Coast are sending in entries, many of which will show stock that is to be entered in the world's fairs at San Francisco and San Diego are making the State Fair a training school for the fairs at San Francisco and San Diego in 1915, so this year's fair should find something far better than usual.

With a good list of free attractions, such as the $35,000 stake harness race, auto polo, driving horses, chariot racing, hippodrome and fancy riding, broncho busting, fireworks, a brass band contest, a high class horse show, and one or two other big features in course of preparation, the State Fair will be giving a week of entertainment such as has never before been provided for the people of California.

The Western Pacific Railroad has combined with the State Fair in offering prizes for the best corn grown in California. This State can raise corn that compares favorably with the famous corn belt states of the Middle-west, and there is no reason why the farmers should not be encouraged to make an extensive showing of this product. The W. P. offers $50 for the best corn grown in the Sacramento and San Joaquin Valleys as follows: $25 for the largest number of bushels per acre; $15 for the next best yield, and $10 for the best ten ears of corn.

Director I. L. Borden of the State Agricultural Society has discovered a beautiful San Francisco girl who would like to sing fivesongs a day at the State Fair at Sacramento next month. He declining to reveal her identity now, but says she is the most beautiful songstress he has ever seen.

NILES LOSS IS HAYWARD'S GAIN

The removal of G. F. Sullivan and family from Niles is a distinct loss to the community. During his residence here they have been a valuable addition to our community. Mr. Sullivan has always shown great interest in all movement for the advancement of the town and has always been prominently identified with all the local commercial organizations and has shown the ability and also the energy to present the claims of Niles and Washington Township in a very able manner. The editor of the Press has often opposed Mr. Sullivan's ideas but we have always found him a courteous opponent. Niles' loss is Hayward's gain.

ROOD GOES TO VISALIA

Luther W. Rood, who has guided the destinies of the Township Register for over a year past has moved his line type machine to Visalia, where he will have charge of a new daily paper to be started there.

Mr. Rood has not as yet disposed of his lease on the Register.

The Alameda County Water District Petition

Boundaries of Our Proposed Local Water District ---Petition to Be Presented to Board of Supervisors Next Monday.

The Press takes pleasure in printing the petition for the formation of the Alameda County Water District (Washington Township District). It is now being circulated and so far no opposition whatever has been met in securing signatures. The committee hopes to have the petition ready to present to the Board of Supervisors next Monday. We suggest that our readers cut out the petition and save it for future reference. On the advice of their attorney the ladies have not been asked to sign it so as to avoid any legal question. The ladies will be asked to vote for the district however.

Water Question News

The House of Representatives deferred the Hetch Hetchy bill yesterday and Senator John D. Works is coming home and will not be present to oppose the Hetch Hetchy bill in the Senate.

San Francisco is getting ready to condemn the Spring Valley Co's properties and The Metropolitan Water District got another jolt last Monday. Every body's doing it now.

CALIFORNIA LAND SHOW COMMITTEE

The California Land Show and Home Industry Exhibition will be a million and a half dollar exposition of the lands and products of the state according to the announcement made by General Manager Edward H. Brown at the joint meeting of the two bodies at the Palace Hotel last week. It will cost the management $75,000 to open the doors of the big pavilion on October 11 and the sum spent on installation and maintaining of exhibits will reach an even greater total of expenditure.

A NEW SPORTING EDITOR

The Press this week boasts of an addition to its editorial staff in the person of Frank Mendoza, who beginning with this week's issue is sporting editor. He will have charge of this department and also will attend to the highschool activities for us. Frank is a member of next year's graduating class at the local union high school and we believe that his writing will be well worth the perusal of our readers.

WATER DISTRICT PETITION SIGNED

According to schedule the Water Committee had the petitions for the Alameda County Water District but on Tuesday, August 12, and they were signed very readily by all the electors to whom they were presented. The following canvassers circulated the petitions which will be presented to the Board of Supervisors next Monday morning. W. D. Paterson, J. C. Shinn, H. E. Mosher, E. N. Stevenson, Henry May, W. B. Kirk, Geo. Lowrie, G. S. Caldeira, T. D. Witherly.

JOE RODERICK LOSES OFFICE

Forced to Give Up Position He Has Held Many Years.

Constable Jos Roderick of Niles was placed under arrest Monday of this week on a warrant sworn out by Detective Helms of the District Attorney's office. He is charged with permitting prisoners to escape. During the Niles Carnival, a railroad policeman named P. W. Toptus placed three young men under arrest on a charge of disturbing the peace. He turned them over to Constable Roderick, who allowed them to go on $10 cash bail each. Roderick failed to turn over the money to Justice Court until last week. Roderick claims that there was no intent on his part to keep the money, and says that Judge Sandholdt's illness was the principal reason why he did not turn it over sooner. He also claims that he was given the bail money in the presence of a large crowd during the carnival and has publicly acknowledged to many people that he held the money. He also claims that it has been a practice for years to accept bail without a stated amount being fixed by Judge Sandholdt, the only requirement being a fixed minimum below which he was not to go.

The District Attorney's office, however, takes a different view of the matter, and the Grand Jury for the past week has been investigating the case.

On Tuesday Roderick was arraigned before Judge Wamsley at Irvington and his bail fixed at $10,000. On Wednesday Judge Sandholdt's testimony was taken, and his testimony refuted Roderick's claim that he had tendered the bail money.

On Thursday Roderick on the advice of his attorneys gave up the idea of a fight against the entire legal machinery of the county, pleaded guilty to the charge of misappropriation of bail money and forfeited his office.

It is understood that the Grand Jury will recommend the dismissal of the charge in Judge Wamsley's court as they consider that Roderick has been sufficiently punished.

Already there is a prolific crop of would-be constables in the field and the people of Niles are busy dodging the responsibility and uselessness of signing petitions.

The position will be filled to suit the powers-that-be in Oakland and our ambitious citizens might just as well disabuse themselves of the thought that a petition amounts to anything, without the official Oakland O. K.

WANT MRS. OVERACKER NAMED SCHOOL TRUSTEE

Anticipating that a vacancy will soon exist in the Niles School District owing to the removal of Mr. G. F. Sullivan's family to Hayward, a petition is being circulated asking County Superintendent G. W. Frick to appoint Mrs. Overacker. No other candidates have as yet developed.

THE LIBERTY OF THE PRESS IS THE HIGHEST SAFEGUARD TO
FREE GOVERNMENT. — Col. E. D.
Baker.

MEASURES INSTEAD OF MEN.

THE REMOVAL of the standard linotype machine of the Register office from Niles to Visalia and the new business venture of Luther W. Rood in a daily paper there carries its own lesson. Mr. Rood is the fifth editor or associate editor of the Register whose main effort it has been to drive the Press from this field. The past year has seen the Register office better equipped for the work of subjugation and extermination than any country newspaper of its size in California. That it has failed is due principally to the fact that the motives behind the financing of the Register have not been of the highest. A controlled organ, because of the selfish motives which necessarily actuate it, does not appeal to the people.

The editor of the Press understands the limitations that have hedged in Editor Rood and while we have not failed to hammer the policies he represents, we have always felt kindly toward him personally. We wish him and his most estimable wife every success in their new field at Visalia.

The Press, which will soon have attained its twenty-second year, seven of which have been under the present management, will so long as we control it continue to make service to the community its principal aim. Under such a policy no honest man has need to fear it. Five years ago the Press was apparently that many years in advance of the political times. To-day a new era is on. It is the era of political freedom and the rule of the people. It was to help usher in this era that the Press has fought so strenuously against the old system with its petty bossism, and the union of all the selfish interests that tended to subvert free government. We could not have been otherwise and be true to the principles of American manhood. We have longed all our life for this new freedom, not because of the personal gratification it might bring but because it would help to preserve the ideals of the Republic and in the larger measure of liberty our people and their descendants would be able to promote the true destiny of the race. Our part and our field has been an insignificant one, and yet it is the many small fields and efforts in California that make up the great effort of the State. And the new era in California already is working a wonderful change in the nation.

If we have stubbornly refused to surrender in the past seven years, it has not all been personal pride, although we must confess that our determination to make good to those who have had faith in us during the dark days of the past has been a strong incentive. The hopes for the future, the working out of the numberless social, educational, industrial and political problems that are crowding the present day full to overflowing are alluring enough to hold us to the work if we are given anything like an adequate support. A firm faith in the Right and the working out of the immutable principle of Justice, slow though it may be, has been our strength.

As in the past, the Press will hew to the line of public service without fear. We ask the support of the people when we are right and their forbearance when our judgment may seem wrong.

Under the new era that has opened upon us the most marked change will be the emphasis to be placed on measures instead of men. With the machinery of government so radically changed, the personality of candidates for office will not count for so much as in the past. If they do not fulfill their trust they can readily be removed. In order to make the most of our situation we must bring to the front measures for the public good. These must be emphasized and if they are the politicians can be depended upon to fall into line. Their ears are always to the ground and their scent is keen to the wind that blows popularity. If the Press shall pursue a somewhat different course in the future, emphasizing measures more than men, it will not be because we have changed our policies but rather because conditions have so changed that our greater sphere of usefulness as a paper appears to us to be in advocating real measures of reform rather than to depend upon the personality of men. The time has come to mark out a newer and larger field, applying to it the same principles which have always actuated us. Our past course is our only guarantee for the future.

THE REGISTER is authority for the statement that in case a successor is to be selected to succeed G. F. Sullivan as school trustee of the Niles school district an effort will be made to have some one appointed who will not be in favor of retaining Mr. Vincent as principal. We are not aware that a vacancy will occur very soon, but should County Superintendent Frick be called upon to select a successor to Mr. Sullivan we hope he will endeavor to select a trustee who is not pledged beforehand either for or against anyone. It ought to be someone without an axe to grind, someone who will not be influenced by petty political or other reasons, but who will be fair-minded and just and above all things else stand for the good of the school only.

THE FRIGHTFUL accident at San Lorenzo last Sunday serves to emphasize the need of having underground crossings wherever possible in this vicinity. It is to be hoped that our local public bodies will give this matter their earnest attention during the coming year.

REFERENDUM WORKS BACKWARD ALSO

Enough signatures have been secured to tie up four laws passed by the last legislature. Oddly enough three of the laws, the red light abatement act, the blue sky law, and the water commission act are three of the best laws passed by the last legislature. The referendum in these cases has been invoked by the interests affected by them. There is no popular outcry against any of them. The fourth measure against which the referendum has been invoked is the law that forbids the sale of wild game. There is a wide spread resentment against this proposed law and it will undoubtedly be defeated when it goes to the people. The blue sky law is a meritorious measure intended to protect the public from the thousand and one skin-game promotion propositions that are continually being worked off on the unsuspecting public. It would have been a godsend to Niles a few years ago if this law had been in operation. The law will undoubtedly be upheld when it comes to a vote.

KEEP THE SALOONS OUT OF THE PARK

The Register is evidently trying to pull somebody's chestnuts out of the fire in the attempt it began last week to show that Fernbrook Park conditions are worse since the closing of the saloon at that place than before. It is not hard to guess whose chestnuts they are. We believe the attempt will fail. The interested parties may rely upon one fact and that is that any attempt to reopen a saloon in the canyon will meet with determined opposition no matter who the applicant is. The Press can not help but remind the Register that one of the cleanest, quietest and most refined picnics held in Niles Canyon this year was held under the auspices of one of the prominent State Catholic organizations and there was no drinking and what is more there was no ragdancing. It was entirely decent and very creditable to the organization that held it. It never would have been held there under the old conditions. Such gatherings are welcomed by our people and are a benefit and more will come if the saloons are kept closed. If the conditions exist as the Register claims they can be remedied. And they will be but not by reopening a saloon.

Alvarado.

The Birthday Club was entertained on Tuesday by Mrs. Bajlache of Fruitvale. A good attendance was present and the day was delightfully spent. Cards were the order of the afternoon.

Willie Hart, the seven year old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Hart, died at their home on Tuesday as a result of blood poisoning. About ten days ago the little fellow got a sliver in his foot which his mother attended to. No bad results were noticed until a few days ago the little fellow's foot began to trouble him and the doctor was called. He found that a portion of the sliver had been broken off and infection had set in. All was done that could be but the little fellow could not be saved. The funeral was held Friday in Elmhurst of which place Mr. and Mrs. Hart were residents until a month ago. Mr. Hart is now in the employment of the Alvarado Sugar Co.

Andy Logan and Mr. Fair are off on an auto trip to Davis and surrounding country. They report a delightful time.

School began Monday with a splendid enrolment. On Monday night robbers entered the school house and made away with lead pencils, not disturbing anything else. It is thought that the same ones are busy who visited several districts in the vicinity last year.

Clarence Riley an employee of the Sugar factory got quite badly injured Tuesday while trying to ride an Indian motor bike belonging to another party. He was returning from Hayward and in some way lost and in some way lost control of the machine and went off the side of the road. The machine was somewhat demolished and Riley himself is laid up for repairs.

Invitations are out to the reception to be tendered Miss Davilla and Mr. Menezes following their marriage on Wednesday morning.

SPORTS

NEWARK EMERGES VICTORIOUS FROM A COMEDY OF ERRORS

Tigers Aided by Loose Fielding of Centerville Romps Away With Game by Score of 10 to 2.

Newark succeeded in defeating Centerville last Sunday by a score of 10 to 2 and thereby clinched the pennant of the Township league. The game, which was played at Centerville, was another lucky win for the Tigers and Wiggs was again a fortunate critter to escape with his scalp.

The first two innings seemed to convince a majority of the fans that they were to be treated with a pitchers' battle. It was indeed a pitchers' battle outside of the third and seventh innings. But Centerville's inability to field properly at the critical moments of the game and Wiggs' ability to tighten up in the pinches made victory easy for the Tigers.

Centerville outit Newark, stole more bases, and consequently made more errors. Wiggs must have been considerably off color when he was unable to strike out more than seven of the opposing batters. Shanon beat him in this department of the game with ten strike-outs to his credit. Wiggs was found for eleven safe hits while Shanon held the Tigers down to nine bingles. But eight of those nine came in two innings, netting the ten runs Newark scored. A synopsis of the game is as follows:

FIRST INNING.

H. Wales out on hit to second. A. Wales struck out. McGraw out on hit to third. No hits, no runs.

Purdy flew out to H. Wales. Gladsten struck out. Selaya got a Texas leaguer back of second and took second on a bad throw from pitcher to first. Hansen struck out. One hit, no runs.

SECOND INNING.

Jehl safe on pitcher's error. Turner flew out to Hansen. Shanon caught Jehl asleep off first. Wiggs struck out. No hits, no runs. Riggs doubled on hit in front of home plate. Norris sacrificed Emerson to third. Hawley out on hit to Muller. One hit, no runs.

THIRD INNING.

Marshall doubled to right. Hafner walked. Muller struck out. H. Wales was safe on Purdy's error. Marshall scored. A. Wales safe on Emerson's error. Two more errors on the part of Hawley and Gladsten scored. Hafner, H. Wales and A. Wales. McGraw flew out to Riggs. Jehl tripled inside of left field flag. Turner singled to left and Jehl scored. Wiggs bunted safely. Marshall safe on Purdy's error. Hafner struck out. Four hits and five runs. Shanon flew to Al Wales. Purdy flew to Muller. Gladsten singled to right but was out stealing second. One hit, no runs.

FOURTH INNING.

Muller flew out to Emerson. H. Wales out on hit to Purdy. A. Wales out on hit to pitcher. No hits, no runs. Selaya safe on A. Wales' error. Hansen singled over second. Riggs doubled to center. Selaya scored. Emerson struck out. Norris struck out. Hawley walked. Shanon out on hit to Turner. Two hits, one run.

on hit to Turner. Two hits, one run.

FIFTH INNING. McGraw flew out to Purdy. Jehl struck out. Turner walked. Wiggs struck out. No hits, no runs.

Purdy flew out to H. Wales. Gladsten out, Marshall to Turner. Selaya singled by third. Hansen singled over second. Both runners executed a double steal. Riggs fanned. Two hits and no runs.

SIXTH INNING. Marshall flew to Norris. Hafner fanned. Muller fanned. No hits, no runs.

Emerson singled to right. Norris struck out. Emerson stole second. Hawley was safe on an infield hit. Shanon flew to McGraw. Purdy safe on Marshall's error. Emerson scored. Gladsten flew out to McGraw. Two hits and one run.

SEVENTH INNING. H. Wales singled through the infield, stole second. A. Wales got a Cincinnati hit. McGraw singled to right. H. Wales scored. Jehl flew to Purdy. Turner safe on Norris' error. A. Wales and McGraw scored. Wiggs out on hit to Gladsten. Marshall doubled over third. Turner scored. Marshall stole third and came home on an overthrow. Hafner fanned. Four hits and five runs.

EIGHTH INNING. Selaya flew to Muller. Hansen fanned. Riggs flew to H. Wales. No hits, no runs. Muller fanned. H. Wales flew to Purdy. Al Wales bunted safely. McGraw out on hit to Gladsten. One hit, no runs.

NINTH INNING. Emerson safe on McGraw's error. Norris flew to McGraw. Hawley got another infield single. Purdy out on infield hit. One hit, no runs.

Jehl flew out on hit to pitcher. Turner out on hit to pitcher. Wiggs flew to Emerson. No hits, no runs. Purdy flew to H. Wales. Gladsten flew to Turner. Selaya singled over third but was forced at second by Hansen. One hit, no runs.

RESULTS OF GAMES

Newark 10, Centerville 2.
Niles 9, Decoto 0. (forfeited because of Decoto's absence.)

GAMES TOMORROW

Niles at Centerville.

NOTES ON THE GAME

The Luna-ticks have lately contracted the habit of forfeiting games to their opponents. The Niles followers of the game were vexed Sunday over the failure of the Decoto team to make an appearance.

Emerson's two-base hit was one of the fluke variety. The ball took an upward course, falling on fair ground just about ten feet from the home plate. Wiggs made an effort to get it but failed to touch it.

Another lucky hitter turned out to be Jehl—the party responsible for the Shamrock's defeat of the previous week. The ball just barely hit inside the left field flag and rolled under the fence for a three-base hit.

Shanon pitched a good game for Centerville, considering the quality of support given him. In only two innings were the Tigers able to touch his delivery, while Wiggs was touched up freely throughout the whole game.

Centerville faced the Tigers with a crippled line up. Calhoun was missed at second base and the absence of Mathiesen made a big dent in the infield.

Selaya, the product of the Irvington sand lots, was the slugging defense of the day. He hit Wiggs safely three times out of five trips to the plate.

The game was marred by a great many errors. Centerville was the chief offender, having seven to their credit.

The attendance was very good considering Centerville's position in the league standing.

Marshall did the best stick work for the Tigers, getting two doubles out of four times at bat.

The Champion Tigers are again champions.

But the Shamrocks are a good second.

While the Old Guard are third.

And Decoto finishes last.

Where is Irvington?

Niles Notes

The H. C. Capwell Co. have an ad in this week's issue of the Press. You will find it on the last page. It always has something of interest to you.

Martin Cavanaugh and son, Billy, returned this week from an extended visit to the middle west. Mrs. Cavanaugh is reported by her husband to be no better, although given an extended trip to her former home in Ireland.

A number of Niles residents went to Pleasanton on Thursday to attend the su'ky and motorcycle races. Many motorcycles passed through town during the morning hours on their way to the same destination.

Mrs. F. A. Dew of San Jose, formerly of Niles was the victim of burglars recently who entered her home and stole many articles of value including her silverware. The thief was afterwards arrested and the articles recovered.

The farewell reception tendered to the pastor of the Niles Congregational Church and his wife, the Rev. and Mrs. Vernon F. Jones on Tuesday evening last proved a most enjoyable gathering. Friends were present to the number of one hundred and forty. The Sunday School and Guild rooms had been carefully decorated by the Guild ladies, the corners and nooks being filled with beautiful bunches of pink amyrellis and asparagus fern. Music was furnished during the evening on the piano and violin under the direction of Mrs. M. Hinton of Berkeley. Many loving words of farewell were spoken to Mr. and Mrs. Jones and all engaged in informal social conversation. In the latter part of the evening a table spread with silverware including a complete set for table service was placed in the center of the large Sunday School room and Mr. W. H. Ford was chosen to make the presentation speech, the articles being a farewell gift from the many friends formed during Mr. Jones' pastorate.

Mr. Jones though much surprised at this token of esteem and affection responded in his usual happy manner expressing his regret at leaving Niles where his pastorate has extended over nine years. Following the presentation, ice cream and cake were served and it was the midnight hour before the guests departed. The farewell gift chosen was especially fitting as the parsonage was entered by burglars two years ago while Mr. and Mrs. Jones were away on their summer vacation and their silverware stolen. Friends were present during the evening from Hayward, San Jose, Alvarado, Centerville, Irvington and Niles.
